REVIEW THE TEXT: WHERE DID WE LEARN?

Matthew 11:20-24

REVIEW THE SERMON: WHAT DID WE LEARN?

Context

Christ faced the rising opposition of the critical crowd with a growing specificity and aggression. He faced the cities who saw Him most clearly displayed as Messiah and pronounced woe on them. These verses teach that a non-response to Jesus is a negative response to Jesus. Indifference to the Son of God will damn men to Hell.

Main Points

1. The indifferent ones will receive condemnation
    a. Sovereign Messiah's denunciation
    b. Sovereign Messiah's explanation
    c. Sovereign Messiah's verdict
2. The chosen ones will receive revelation
3. The desperate ones will receive rest

Interpretative Points

- Tyre and Sidon
  Ezekiel 28
- Prophet
  John the Baptist was the final prophet before the coming of the Messiah (Mal. 3:1, 4:5). He was the forerunner after 400 years of silence from God.

MAKE APPLICATION: HOW HAVE I OBEYED WHAT I LEARNED?

- Divine omniscience: God has contingent knowledge?
- Sovereign revelation: God does not owe anyone more or less revelation.
- Judgment: Judgment will take into account revelation. The amount of revelation given to a people is directly connected to their judgment if they reject Christ.
- Repentance: What consistent fruit come from the root of repentance? How are you nurturing a heart lifestyle of repentance that is consumed with the glory and greatness of Christ? What are ways the people around you know you are a repentant one and not an indifferent one?
